

INTRODUCTION

ABOUT SLK LEARNING CENTER

Located in the beautiful community of Rancho Palos Verdes, California, SLK Learning Center is a proven leader among Southern California academic tutoring organizations and test prep centers, with a highly qualified and experienced staff of teachers amassing decades of experience in the field of instruction and education. SLK Learning Center provides quality Language Arts and ESL (English as a Second Language) tutoring programs for both native and non-native English speakers, with specialized classes in SAT test assessment and preparation, language and communication studies, and tutorials in a diverse range of subjects for all students, ranging from early education levels to adult.

EDUCATIONAL PHILOSOPHY

The key to personal, academic and professional success lies in confidence. At SLK Learning Center, we help our students develop the skills to be their best. These skills provide students with the tools to feel good about themselves, and the confidence to excel in all areas of life. Through a challenging curriculum and a supportive, encouraging environment, SLK assists students in their quest for success through comprehensive programs, specialized to meet your specific academic needs and goals. From ESL tutoring, to math, reading and language arts, to standardized test preparation, let SLK take you to the next level of academic success!

HOW CAN I ENROLL?

It's easy! For your convenience, you may call, email or come in to our office to set up an appointment. Our fees for assessment tests, classes and programs vary and are subject to change, so please call for more information. See how SLK's staff of educators can help you!

