

SAT TEST PREP CLASSES

S.A.T. OVERVIEW

The SAT is the standardized test used by colleges to help determine student admission. Not every school requires the SAT, but a large majority of schools do require the exam, many requiring a minimum score for admission consideration.

➤ SMALL GROUP LESSONS

If you're looking for the structure of our prep courses, combined with the flexibility of a personal tutor, Small Group Tutoring is the perfect program. We'll group you with other students who share similar schedules, testing needs and interests (or you can enroll with your own group of friends), and we'll match you with a personal tutor. This comprehensive program lasts 31 hours, spread out over a 5-week period.

Small Group Tutoring includes:

- 15 hours of tutoring
- 4 full-length practice tests
- Complete review of all subjects you'll be tested on
- Complete set of materials, including additional sheets of homework and drills
- Enrollment fee is $700 per student ($400 for Verbal only, $300 for Math only)

➤ WHAT'S IN IT FOR YOU?

Personalized Instruction - Your personal tutor will customize the program to best meet your testing needs.

Personalized Feedback - Diagnostic score reports, customized homework assignments and focused lessons.

Practice Tests and Tools - You'll get all the materials you need to prepare: timed drills, practice materials, manual/workbooks, and practice tests. And, help is just moments away. Through email or phone, your tutor is available to answer any of your questions.
